

Holly Hill Dressage at Woodlands EC, on the 4th January 2009 Photos by sbmphotographic.co.uk

Tracey Gaylor on Longmeads Aristocrat won the Novice 30

Hayley Head on Polito Van Het Robinsho took 3rd place in Novice 30

A VERY COLD and frosty start with temperatures below freezing, saw brave hearted competitors preparing their horses and ponies for the second leg of the Holly Hill Riding Club Winter Dressage held at Woodlands Equestrian Centre, Essex.

Some new faces and of course the regulars were there, some hoping to fulfill New Years resolutions: "get out to a competition" and "have a go at qualifying for the CT championships".

Emma Cain with Joya took 1st place in the Walk Trot class. Preliminary 4 was won by Hayley Head riding My Lucky Charm. Rikke Asbjorn on her and Jacquie Field's 5 year old dutch warmblood, JR'sWonderboy, took 2nd in both Preliminary 4 restricted and Novice 20 restricted and she was delighted to have qualified in both classes for the CT championships.

Preliminary 12 was won by Stephane Cambel on Joe's Joy. Novice 20 was taken by Sophie Sutton on Dun Deliberately. Tracy Gaylor riding Longmeads Aristocrat took 1st in Novice 30 with Vicky Westcott on Ad Lib the Elementary winner.

Further shows are being held on 25th January and 22nd February 2009. More information can be found at www.hollyhillridingclub.co.uk. See the Results section in this magazine.

Patchetts Unaffiliated Derby on 3rd January 2009 Photos by catchitquick.co.uk

Rosie Danecker on Derravagh-Og won the Pony Open Derby

Kelly Turner on London's Playboy won the Horse Small Open Derby