

Sarah to have a sit on her cob.

"I was apprehensive, but I couldn't resist. When the mare started napping I found that my old emotions kicked back in and there was no way I was going to let her get away with it," said Sarah. "I was left inspired and it really got my blood up."

Sarah found Boskenwyn Lad ("Kenny") in April last year and her friend, advanced eventer Sarah-Jane Brown, gave the gelding his first few BE90 runs.

"My main aim is the Grassroots Championship next year — if I get to gallop over a fence at Badminton I will feel complete," said Sarah.

Kelly Turner's section G winner Talented Boy has found his cross-country courage this year winning ride, Chequers Play The Game, belongs to one of her liveryes, Amy Lambert. "Amy has been doing her first year medical exams, so I've taken over the ride temporarily."

Kelly Turner added victory in BE100 section G to her tally of good results this year on Talented Boy, which include a win at Brigstock and a second at Stratford Hills.

"He's always been consistent on the flat and he's a scopey jumper, but he's not been brave enough across country until now," said Kelly, who credits her father, long-standing event horse owner, Sir Michael Turner, with providing her with support and guidance.

Seventeen-year-old Bethany Samways stole the headlines in novice section H with her own Red Hill Diamond, beating her trainer, Natalie Weston-Kaye, who finished fifth in the same section, while Davina Kerr-Muir took novice section J with Premier Class.

Riders were full of praise for the efforts made to ensure the going for all three phases was as good as possible.

"I've had some nice emails from riders complimenting us about the ground," said joint-organiser Bill Allen. "Even Mark Todd came up to me and said thank you."

but he just has to put up with it — he's not been doing a bad job."

Claire won two novices last year on Vito Morka, but this was Andrew's first British Eventing win. He finished on his dressage score of 32.

Vito Morka is Dutch-bred by Jazz and is owned by Rosemary Latham. This win upgraded him to intermediate.

Andrew has also taken over the reins on Claire's two young home-breds, Ludicrus and Eurhythmic, both of whom were placed at Winkleigh.

How I make it work

ADELE MACIVER, a legal PA, won a BE100 section at Hopetoun with More Mischief (right).

"I live on the Black Isle and work in Inverness, so I have a 20-mile drive back and forth to work every day," said Adele. "I get up at 5.20am to ride, but luckily my husband works from home, so he's on hand to do odd jobs."

This was a fifth win at BE100 level for Adele's ride, More Mischief, and she is considering making the step up to novice.

"Showjumping has been our weak link, but I'm hoping a winter of indoor shows will remedy that," she said.
